Alte; for a slower pace of life to relax and enjoy
Situated inland, in the region of Loulé, Alte is a traditional Algarve village with cobbled streets and local craftwork shops. Just 30 minutes drive to the coast and Faro airport it is accessible yet removed from the usual tourist hustle & bustle

About Alte:
1. Stunning natural beauty

Alte is famous for its natural springs and lush green landscapes. Two iconic Fontes; Grande & Pequena (large & small) where you can swim in clear waters. The Vigário Waterfall is one of the few waterfalls in the Algarve. Alte surroundings are ideal for hiking and horse riding

2. Traditional architecture

The white houses, the iconic chimneys, the cobbled streets, everything in Alte breathes tradition. The village has kept its soul intact, with a calm, genuine and welcoming pace of life.

3. Welcoming community

Here, people know each other by name. The village has a mixed community of locals and foreigners. Many artists, retirees, digital nomads and nature lovers have chosen Alte as their home.

4. Culture and gastronomy

The village celebrates popular festivals throughout the year, with emphasis on events such as the Folklore Festival, Carnival and traditional fairs. The restaurants serve delicious regional dishes such as roast lamb, goat stew, figs, almonds and arbutus brandy.

5. Location

Despite being inland, Alte has easy access to Loulé, Silves, the coast and even Lisbon is just a few hours away. A peaceful retreat without giving up the connection to the rest of the country and the world

Who is Alte for?

For those looking for authenticity rather than coastal resorts

For those who want to live with less stress and more purpose

For those who want a charming Quinta, away from the hustle and bustle

For those who dream of investing in rural tourism, in an increasingly valued destination.
